Dr. SCHENCK:—

DNAR SER—Several months since I was compelled to relinquish active business purentle in consequence of a severacough, contracted by exposure. I placed myself under the treatment of my family physician for a time, without apperent relief, and he finally pronounced my lungs diseased, assuring me that it was useless to seek relief from medicines. He informed me that the enly means by which my disease could be overcome was by seeking through attending food and proper care, to relaviourate my system; that if there was sufficient vigor left I might thus regain my health; tothervise, my case was hopeless. At that time I was repidly failing, and many of my friends with blood. I was beyond all hope lift cough was very severe, sometimes lawfug, to cough mas very severe, sometimes lawfug, to complete the cough was very severe, sometimes lawfug, to complete the cough mass very severe, sometimes lawfug, to complete the cough my friends with blood. But appetite was poor, and my stomash no extinement of the property of the complete was property and the property of the complete was property and the green of the complete was property and the give your medicines at risk. In accordance with this native I vasied you, and the examination under your Respiramenter proved very satisfactory, conviscing, me that you understood my case perfectly. I entered upon the treatment prescribed, and in a short time found great relief. I am now enjoying greatly impreved health; my cough troubles me very little, my appetite is good, and my strength gradually increasing.

It affords me pleasure to make this acknowledgment of the benefits I have derived from the use of your medicines as well as to express my gralitude therefor; and I freely make this statement, which you are at liberty to use as you may deem proper, with the sincere hope that it may be the means of benefiti
